

Pastor's Bible Study

Monday, November 30, 2009

Are you looking for a mid week Bible study experience? Pastor David is going to be leading one starting on Tuesday, December 1. This informal study will be at 1:00 pm in the Becht Center Board room. No previous Bible skills or study experience needed. Let get together and grow in the Lord, in knowledge of God's word and in fellowship with Christ.

December 1, 8, 15, 22 we will be studying the great passages of scripture about the coming of Jesus and the other Christmas passages.

Keep the Tuesday 1:00 time on your calendar. There will be other Bible study topics in the new year.
